

PRA 320H Exercise & Aging Instructor

The University of Toronto is strongly committed to diversity within its community. The University especially welcomes applications from visible minority group members, women, aboriginal persons, persons with disabilities, members of sexual minority groups, and others who may contribute to the further diversification of ideas.

Deadline:	August 17, 2018
Number of Positions:	1
Rate of Pay:	Commensurate with experience and qualifications
Position Start Date:	September 6
Position End Date:	October 16
Number of Hours per week:	PRA 320H Tues/Thurs 9-11am
Classification:	Part Time Casual Non Union
Summary:	The successful candidate will deliver PRA 320 Exercise &amp; Aging course to all 3rd and 4th year undergraduate students in Kinesiology and Physical Education. You will be expected to demonstrate an understanding of all aspects of the course content and teaching methodology; explaining, demonstrating, teaching; and evaluating current training and fitness programs. You must demonstrate confidence and competence in teaching exercise &amp; ageing. You will build on the body of knowledge that students have gained in PRA100 and 200. You will also be expected to make links to other KPE academic classes such as skill acquisition, biomechanics and sport injury prevention. You will be expected to help students gain an understanding of the general principles involved with TGfU, Games Sense and Play Practice as teaching and learning models. A course outline using the KPE template, must be created prior to the start of the first class and handed out to the students at the first class. A copy should be provided before classes begin to Prof Catherine Amara, Director, Undergraduate Studies.

	Duties Include:  PRA instructors are responsible for all aspects of their course delivery from contributing to the construction of a course outline, recording attendance and punctuality of students, teaching the course, evaluating student performance, writing and marking a course exam and safety of the students while in your class. You are also required to keep accurate records of student marks and submit an end of course individual student evaluation as required. Instructors will invigilate their own final examinations. PRA Instructors are responsible for all aspects of equipment storage and safety.  Where and when necessary instructors are expected to attend course development meetings. In some cases you will be team teaching, so an ability to work with other instructors is expected. Further descriptions of PRA courses can be found on page 27 of the 2014-2015 Undergraduate Program Calendar which can be found at the link below:  http://physical.utoronto.ca/Undergraduate/Current_Students/Calendar.aspx
Minimum Qualifications:	Education:  University education required. An academic background in Kinesiology/Physical and Health Education background preferred. Certification:  A current and valid current Basic Rescuer “C” CPR (Adult) certificate within one year of issue (SJA, RC, Canadian Ski Patrol or LSS) and a Standard First Aid certificate (SJA, RC, Canadian Ski Patrol or LSS) within two years of issue. A current LSS Automated External Defibrillator certificate prior to employment is an asset but will be offered and must be obtained immediately upon hiring. Appropriate sport or activity instructor NCCP certifications and NCCP Coach Introduction to Competition Parts A and B certification is an asset. Experience:  A solid background and knowledge of Teaching Games for Understanding (TGfU), Game Sense and Play Practice as teaching methods is required. Previous experience required and the ability to teach participants with different skill levels and different learner styles. Familiarity with the PRA programs is an asset. Working as a part of a team delivering PRA courses is expected. Other: Mandatory Training:  Attending a PRA Instructor Orientation meeting prior to courses starting in

	September 2018 is required. Times and location TBA. Attending PRA Instructor Course meetings as required. Attending a Faculty Orientation workshop and gaining basic safety certification is required BEFORE you can teach. These will be provided by the Faculty.
Method of Application	To submit an application: You must include  Resume &amp; Cover Letter; General Employment Application Form and  Photocopies of all relevant certifications; and return by email to:  Ashley.stirling@utoronto.ca Email subject line should include title of position.
Contact Information:	Professor Ashley Stirling, Vice-Dean, Academic Affairs  Faculty of Kinesiology and Physical Education  55 Harbord Street, Toronto, ON  M5S 2W6
Date Posted:	August 10, 2018