

SOAR Indigenous Youth Gathering – Overnight Supervisor

Positions: Rate of Pay: S14/hour	Deadline:	January 20th, 2019
Rate of Pay: $14/hour Position Start Date: March 2, 2019 Number of Hours per week: Classification: Casual - U of T Summary: The Overnight Supervisor is responsible for ensuring the general safety, security, and comfort of youth participants during their overnight stay in the hotel throughout the SOAR program. Overnight Supervisors will be expected to stay at the hotel and respond to issues or emergencies overnight between the hours of 9pm – 2am or 2am – 7am. They will serve as respectful, welcoming, and positive role models for youth, support youth, and follow through on commitments to the program. We are looking for responsible and reliable students, who work well with youth/teens and who are completely committed to providing a positive and safe overnight environment for participants. Duties include: • The direct supervision and guidance of a group of 20 teens during their overnight stay at the hotel. • Act as the primary point of contact for youth during your shift to assist with questions, concerns, or any mental/physical health matters • Provide positive support to participants • Contact the appropriate resources in the case of an emergency • Communicate with manager and coordinators during and after your shift as needed. • Report program successes and suggest enhancements at the end of the program.	Number of	2
Position Start Date: Position End Date: March 16, 2019 Up to a maximum of 30 hours over the course of March 11 – 16th, 2019 The Overnight Supervisor is responsible for ensuring the general safety, security, and comfort of youth participants during their overnight stay in the hotel throughout the SOAR program. Overnight Supervisors will be expected to stay at the hotel and respond to issues or emergencies overnight between the hours of 9pm – 2am or 2am – 7am. They will serve as respectful, welcoming, and positive role models for youth, support youth, and follow through on commitments to the program. We are looking for responsible and reliable students, who work well with youth/teens and who are completely committed to providing a positive and safe overnight environment for participants. Duties include: The direct supervision and guidance of a group of 20 teens during their overnight stay at the hotel. Act as the primary point of contact for youth during your shift to assist with questions, concerns, or any mental/physical health matters Provide positive support to participants Contact the appropriate resources in the case of an emergency Communicate with manager and coordinators during and after your shift as needed. Report program successes and suggest enhancements at the end of the program.	Positions:
Date: Position End Date: Number of Hours per week: Classification: Casual - U of T The Overnight Supervisor is responsible for ensuring the general safety, security, and comfort of youth participants during their overnight stay in the hotel throughout the SOAR program. Overnight Supervisors will be expected to stay at the hotel and respond to issues or emergencies overnight between the hours of 9pm – 2am or 2am – 7am. They will serve as respectful, welcoming, and positive role models for youth, support youth, and follow through on commitments to the program. We are looking for responsible and reliable students, who work well with youth/teens and who are completely committed to providing a positive and safe overnight environment for participants. Duties include: • The direct supervision and guidance of a group of 20 teens during their overnight stay at the hotel. • Act as the primary point of contact for youth during your shift to assist with questions, concerns, or any mental/physical health matters • Provide positive support to participants • Contact the appropriate resources in the case of an emergency • Communicate with manager and coordinators during and after your shift as needed. • Report program successes and suggest enhancements at the end of the program.	Rate of Pay:	$14/hour
Position End Date: March 16, 2019 Number of Hours per week: Classification: Casual - U of T Summary: The Overnight Supervisor is responsible for ensuring the general safety, security, and comfort of youth participants during their overnight stay in the hotel throughout the SOAR program. Overnight Supervisors will be expected to stay at the hotel and respond to issues or emergencies overnight between the hours of 9pm – 2am or 2am – 7am. They will serve as respectful, welcoming, and positive role models for youth, support youth, and follow through on commitments to the program. We are looking for responsible and reliable students, who work well with youth/teens and who are completely committed to providing a positive and safe overnight environment for participants. Duties include: • The direct supervision and guidance of a group of 20 teens during their overnight stay at the hotel. • Act as the primary point of contact for youth during your shift to assist with questions, concerns, or any mental/physical health matters • Provide positive support to participants • Contact the appropriate resources in the case of an emergency • Communicate with manager and coordinators during and after your shift as needed. • Report program successes and suggest enhancements at the end of the program.	Position Start	March 2, 2019
Number of Hours per week: Classification: Casual - U of T The Overnight Supervisor is responsible for ensuring the general safety, security, and comfort of youth participants during their overnight stay in the hotel throughout the SOAR program. Overnight Supervisors will be expected to stay at the hotel and respond to issues or emergencies overnight between the hours of 9pm – 2am or 2am – 7am. They will serve as respectful, welcoming, and positive role models for youth, support youth, and follow through on commitments to the program. We are looking for responsible and reliable students, who work well with youth/teens and who are completely committed to providing a positive and safe overnight environment for participants. Duties include: • The direct supervision and guidance of a group of 20 teens during their overnight stay at the hotel. • Act as the primary point of contact for youth during your shift to assist with questions, concerns, or any mental/physical health matters • Provide positive support to participants • Contact the appropriate resources in the case of an emergency • Communicate with manager and coordinators during and after your shift as needed. • Report program successes and suggest enhancements at the end of the program.	Date:
per week: Classification: Casual - U of T The Overnight Supervisor is responsible for ensuring the general safety, security, and comfort of youth participants during their overnight stay in the hotel throughout the SOAR program. Overnight Supervisors will be expected to stay at the hotel and respond to issues or emergencies overnight between the hours of 9pm – 2am or 2am – 7am. They will serve as respectful, welcoming, and positive role models for youth, support youth, and follow through on commitments to the program. We are looking for responsible and reliable students, who work well with youth/teens and who are completely committed to providing a positive and safe overnight environment for participants. Duties include: • The direct supervision and guidance of a group of 20 teens during their overnight stay at the hotel. • Act as the primary point of contact for youth during your shift to assist with questions, concerns, or any mental/physical health matters • Provide positive support to participants • Contact the appropriate resources in the case of an emergency • Communicate with manager and coordinators during and after your shift as needed. • Report program successes and suggest enhancements at the end of the program.	Position End Date:	March 16, 2019
Classification: Casual - U of T The Overnight Supervisor is responsible for ensuring the general safety, security, and comfort of youth participants during their overnight stay in the hotel throughout the SOAR program. Overnight Supervisors will be expected to stay at the hotel and respond to issues or emergencies overnight between the hours of 9pm – 2am or 2am – 7am. They will serve as respectful, welcoming, and positive role models for youth, support youth, and follow through on commitments to the program. We are looking for responsible and reliable students, who work well with youth/teens and who are completely committed to providing a positive and safe overnight environment for participants. Duties include: • The direct supervision and guidance of a group of 20 teens during their overnight stay at the hotel. • Act as the primary point of contact for youth during your shift to assist with questions, concerns, or any mental/physical health matters • Provide positive support to participants • Contact the appropriate resources in the case of an emergency • Communicate with manager and coordinators during and after your shift as needed. • Report program successes and suggest enhancements at the end of the program.	Number of Hours	Up to a maximum of 30 hours over the course of March 11 – 16th, 2019
The Overnight Supervisor is responsible for ensuring the general safety, security, and comfort of youth participants during their overnight stay in the hotel throughout the SOAR program. Overnight Supervisors will be expected to stay at the hotel and respond to issues or emergencies overnight between the hours of 9pm – 2am or 2am – 7am. They will serve as respectful, welcoming, and positive role models for youth, support youth, and follow through on commitments to the program. We are looking for responsible and reliable students, who work well with youth/teens and who are completely committed to providing a positive and safe overnight environment for participants. Duties include: • The direct supervision and guidance of a group of 20 teens during their overnight stay at the hotel. • Act as the primary point of contact for youth during your shift to assist with questions, concerns, or any mental/physical health matters • Provide positive support to participants • Contact the appropriate resources in the case of an emergency • Communicate with manager and coordinators during and after your shift as needed. • Report program successes and suggest enhancements at the end of the program.	per week:
comfort of youth participants during their overnight stay in the hotel throughout the SOAR program. Overnight Supervisors will be expected to stay at the hotel and respond to issues or emergencies overnight between the hours of 9pm – 2am or 2am – 7am. They will serve as respectful, welcoming, and positive role models for youth, support youth, and follow through on commitments to the program. We are looking for responsible and reliable students, who work well with youth/teens and who are completely committed to providing a positive and safe overnight environment for participants. Duties include: • The direct supervision and guidance of a group of 20 teens during their overnight stay at the hotel. • Act as the primary point of contact for youth during your shift to assist with questions, concerns, or any mental/physical health matters • Provide positive support to participants • Contact the appropriate resources in the case of an emergency • Communicate with manager and coordinators during and after your shift as needed. • Report program successes and suggest enhancements at the end of the program.	Classification:	Casual - U of T
D.d.ini.una	Summary:	comfort of youth participants during their overnight stay in the hotel throughout the SOAR program. Overnight Supervisors will be expected to stay at the hotel and respond to issues or emergencies overnight between the hours of 9pm – 2am or 2am – 7am. They will serve as respectful, welcoming, and positive role models for youth, support youth, and follow through on commitments to the program. We are looking for responsible and reliable students, who work well with youth/teens and who are completely committed to providing a positive and safe overnight environment for participants. Duties include: • The direct supervision and guidance of a group of 20 teens during their overnight stay at the hotel. • Act as the primary point of contact for youth during your shift to assist with questions, concerns, or any mental/physical health matters • Provide positive support to participants • Contact the appropriate resources in the case of an emergency • Communicate with manager and coordinators during and after your shift as needed.
	Minimum Qualifications:	 Must be available on-call during their shift (8pm – 1:30am or 1:30am – 7 am).
Demonstrated team work ability.		Demonstrated team work ability.
 Knowledge of and interest in building experience with Indigenous communities. 		· ·

	 The ability to organize and motivate youth while nurturing positive youth development, decision-making, and leadership. Responsible, reliable, leadership and adaptability skills are required. Effective communication skills with youth and adults.
	Experience:
	 Experience working effectively with Indigenous youth is an asset.
	Other:
	 Name-based criminal records check – clearance letter. (within 1 year of issue date) Standard First Aid/CPR certificate (current within 3 years of issue)
	An orientation and training day is required on Saturday March 2nd, 2019 – this training is mandatory.
Method of	Please e-mail:
Application	1. Resume
	2. Cover letter3. Clearance letter – see link below to start process
	https://www.torontopolice.on.ca/background-checks/online-application-form.php
	4. First-aid certificate (this can be taken after hiring – please note in application) by 11:59pm on January 20th to soar.kpe@utoronto.ca - subject line should include title of position.
	Please note, only successful applicants will be contacted.
Contact Information:	Questions? Email: soar.kpe@utoronto.ca
Date Posted:	November 25th, 2018